PRESS RELEASE:

In pursuant to Governor Parson closing the State Capital and State office buildings to the public, effective Tuesday, March 24, 2020, at 12:01 am thru April 6, 2020 (unless extended) the Saline County Commission have decided to close the County Courthouse to public access.

We all need to be focused on following all CDC and OSHA guidelines, standards and directives related to the COVID-19 virus. Please focus on staying at home. If county business is needed, below are phone numbers of each office holder you may contact. We encourage our constituents to use online access, the drop box located in the circle drive or again, please call for any questions.

As always, the health, safety, and well-being of our constituents, our employees, and our communities are of paramount concern. We will continue to monitor this evolving situation, please feel free to reach out to us at any time with questions or comments.

Please be safe and take care of our community.

Sincerely,

Saline County Commission
